

We have received Mexican papers up to the 31st December. We are sorry to observe that CIVIL WAR will be the consequence of the present existing between the Crifolistas and Federalists. General Bustamante, President of the Republic, has declared his favor of the system of a Central Government at the city of Puebla. Besides the insurrectionary sympathy, some disturbances have taken place at Merida and other places.

We have just been informed, by a messenger from Tampico, that President Juarez was obliged to leave Mexico, on account of the disturbances which had occurred in the government.

Jan. 1, 3. A. M. At 1 o'clock, last evening, the Horse press and Cotton warehouses, owned by Messrs. N. and H. Hart, Tambores, extended about three hundred feet from the main Camp and St. Charles street, to the hundred feet latitudinally on Comalapa street, thus forming an oblong enclosure, a whole of the buildings together, a very extensive area in the centre, being the Cotton Bales to the height of 8 or 10 feet. The buildings were of brick, covered with tiles. In less than an hour they were reduced to ruins, the space in the centre being that we can learn, about 8,000 negroes consumed; that, with the value of the slidings, makes the whole loss nothing less than $100,000.

We have not learned whether the negroes insured or not; but previous to the fire. The presumption is, that the enormous loss of Cotton must be borne by the owners thereof.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.—The late Baltimore American is indulged in the goodness of a commercial house is the annexed extract of a letter, dated at Tampico, 2d January, 1830.—"I have dated yesterday from the city of Mexico, the following statement of the 23d ult. The last night a grivo was the city in favour of Bustamante, which has proved most disadvantageous to the government was obliged to retire at about 6 o'clock this morning completely overthrown. A considerable number of three persons, Louis Guzman, and Veler, are named to exercise executive power until the arrival of Don Juan Peulla. The Ministers will be named, but it is not yet known who.

The revolution was effected with the least violent excesses of last year; the attempts at a coup were made by the disaffected of the troops. The behaviour of the troops. Guerrero had left the city of Mexico on 20 men to march on Puebla, and had Anna to proceed to Vera Cruz to meet him, having Puebla between them. St. Anna's brother-in-law declares that the result would be the cooperation of St. Anna's troops and Puebla and the immediate and total overthrow of Guerrero's government!

There is no doubt that a bloody civil war is raging in Mexico.

deration of the previous season might be duly appreciated as a great favour upon all, and produced correspondent and grateful devotion. But, alas! the prospect of its continuance was so conducted by the "weather-wise," who, alas! of the day—those Delphic oracles so devoutly consulted by the simple—with equal certainty what they forebore foretell in the shooting of their bows the prevalence of gout and rheumatism to hazard a wise conjecture, we are of our almanac makers whether correct in their notation of the month they should appear in December, and in January, it is time to alter our calculation; and since the season will be so to our almanacs, let nature have her way, by making our almanacs correct. If, however, our wise astrologers, in the exercise of their right, and prefer with patience till nature acknowledges by abjuring her vagaries, even so; and render a reason for their pertinacity.

CINNATI TOWN MEETING.

The mail question is arousing the public in all the States. The National Republican Cincinnati, contains the proceedings of a general town meeting of the voters of Cincinnati. More than fifteen hundred, some of our own people, were convened at the Methodist Church, and adopted a resolution of their opinion in favour of the mail. The language of the resolutions was simple and decisive, and evinces the general approbation of the report of Mr. Allen in the Senate of last session. They recommend similar meetings in all parts of the State, to put down all sectarian views, and assumptions of clerical authority over the consciences of the citizens.

NEW YORK TOWN MEETINGS.

At New York, favourable to the issue of the mail on Sunday, have been addressed, which is written with ability, calling upon the majesty of the people to secure their civil and religious liberties, the free expression of opinion. Meetings have been called in various counties of the State, and in the town of Chatham, in Columbia County, in pursuance of very spirited resolutions adopted an address to the citizens which was the occasion of the rights of the people in the mail question. The cause is in every direction, and so far as we judge from the very extensive correspondence, we have access, we may say the "Sabbath cause," so strenuously by the mail "stoppers," as hopeless.

NEW PAPERS.

receiving frequent invitations for example "pour l'amour de Dieu" from our country brethren.—We would create the kind attentions of our readers, but we are really oppressed by long list of exchanges, and have no means to create that oppression by an extended list. Those Editors who occasionally advertise "The Casket," are responsible of good feeling and reciprocity; but we have seriously resolved to exchange by striking off such as are to us, and with whom we can obtain it. Among the new sciences, recently sprung up and offered their public, we notice the "Conephobian" printed at Blairsville, Pa.—"Record," at Lynn, Mass.

Alden, of Chateaufort made a public statement, that the "Minerva W*****" lately, in the season by very tight lacing—the dead body, the heart, lungs, and found crowded out of their natural position produced a disease of these organs occasioned death. Dr. Ryan, physician in this case, has pronounced in Dr. Alden's statement.

the above statement, and, from the fact of several years with the subscriber, I am convinced that the death was wholly produced by tight lacing.

Bank executioner.—An affair in Nashville on account of circumstances connected with the Bank of the State of Tennessee. The late cashier, Jos. Parrish, has been removed from office and Wm. M. Berryhill Esq. elected in his place. Col. Parrish is said to have refused to surrender to the committee of investigation the books of the bank, alleging that he has permitted individuals to overdraw, whose names he is unwilling to disclose. It is believed that the amount found deficient will be made up and that the solvency of the institution will be in no wise endangered. The adjournment of the legislature is unavoidably delayed, for the purpose of investigating the condition of the bank. It is thought it will adjourn this evening.

It is expected that militia trainings in Maryland will be abolished by the next Legislature. The editor of the Pawtucket Chronicle says: "We sympathize with all the ambitious corporals and their superiors, who are thus obliged to march, and recommend that they wear craps of their left leg."

The thermometer in Boston, last Saturday night, stood at 6 degrees below zero, and on Sunday morning four persons were found dead in their beds, supposed to have been frozen to death. In Salem, it sunk 10 degrees below zero and closed up the harbor with ice.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on Monday, Mr. MARSH submitted resolutions from the Legislature of Pennsylvania, approving the Tariff of 1828.

The resolution offered by Mr. WEBSTER, that the Senate would elect a printer on the 4th inst. was decided to be out of order; and Mr. WEBSTER said he would modify his resolution, so as to read that the "Senate would remove its present printer."

The resolution submitted by Mr. GRUNDY, on Friday, withholding the subscription to Gales & Seaton's compilation of Documents, was considered and laid upon the table.

Mr. FOOT's resolution was then taken up, and Mr. BENSON took the floor, in continuation of his remarks upon Mr. WEBSTER's late speech.

He went into an elaborate examination of the Slavery Question, intending to prove, as was understood, the propriety and justice of holding slaves, from the examples of Jesus Christ and St. Paul. He said that questions as to whether the North, or the South, had showed the most friendship for the West; and, upon this question, continued his remarks until the Senate adjourned.

In the Senate, on Tuesday, Mr. RUGGLES presented a memorial of the Society of Friends, praying that Congress would pass some laws protecting the Southern Indians.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. HOWARD, from the Committee on Commerce, reported, in relation to the relief of sundry owners of vessels sunk for the defence of Baltimore.

The several resolutions offered on the preceding day were taken up and adopted; and several new resolutions were adopted.

On a motion of Mr. CONNER to consider a resolution offered by him some time since, relative to a reduction of the duty on salt, and on the reference of some resolutions of the Legislature of North Carolina, instructing the Senators and requesting the Representatives from that State to vote for such a reduction, some discussion ensued; and at eleven o'clock, when the day of discussion had preceded very far, the debate was suspended.

London dates to the 2d of January, have been received by the Hannibal, at New York. Nothing very important is found. We insert a few items:—

CHRISTIANITY AND BURIALS.—There were christened in London, during the year ending Dec. 15, 1829—Males, 13,674; females, 13,354; in all, 27,028. Buried—Males, 12,015; females, 11,560; in all, 23,575.

A new bank is to be established in Glasgow, with a nominal capital of 2,000,000*l*.

The French papers contain a report that the French Government made proposals to the Pacha of Egypt, asking him to subsidize the Regency of Tunis with the intermediate line of coast, but that the Pacha refused.

Twenty Arab boys have arrived at the Central Schools of the British and Foreign School Society. They were sent over by the Pacha of Egypt, and are to be educated in the English language and trained as schoolmasters for opening schools in Egypt.

In Prussia, the wine duties have just been reduced to one half, in consequence of the vintage having been very scanty.

Letters from Adrianople, of the 20th Nov. state that the plague had made its appearance there.

IRELAND.—Two brothers named Doyle, had their tongues cut off by a party of monsters, in the West of the county of Clare.

Earl Mulgrave's alum manufactory, situate under the cliff at Cittleness, near Whitby, with the agents' house, and 14 cottages, were reduced to ruins Friday, by the falling of a tremendous rock. A cracking before the fall gave time notice to the workmen to escape. The damage estimated at 3000*l*.

A perfect reconciliation is said to have taken place between the Premier and Mr. Huskisson—the latter, however, is not expected to return to office, owing to the delicate state of his health.

On the morning of December 31st, were executed at the Old Bailey, Wm. Newitt, aged 36, for robbing the post office at Maidstone, aged 38, for forging a custom-house voucher on the Bank of England; Stephen Sandford, aged 24, and Jim Leslie, aged 21, for the robbery at Mearns-street, the tailors.

"FRANKFORT, Dec. 23.—It is no longer doubtful, that Prince Leopold of Saxe-Coburg has obtained the assent of the three powers, viz. to the treaty of London, to have the sovereignty of Greece. Prince Leopold, the King, of the Netherlands, by the falling of Cadmus upon the throne, will be the only European King, but France and Russia have not given their assent to this wish, having already expressed on several occasions their opinion that the royal title and dignity had been lavished with too much ease to certain powers of the fourth order.

London, Jan. 2.—We have it in our power to inform the public a very important communication, which, no doubt, will give great satisfaction to every reader of the political organs. The holders of the New Four per Cent. who have been kept in a great state of alarm for some time past by the positive assertion made, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer intended this year to undertake the reduction of the whole amount of the stock, whereby a saving would accrue of about 800,000*l*. per annum—that is, 1.2 per cent. on 145,500,000*l*. stock.—We now find, however, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer has abandoned his intention of reducing more than one third of the whole amount of stock, which is 43,500,000*l*. and that the reduction of a remainder should be postponed 5 years or to later, under circumstances may justify.

M. Roux de Rochette, the newly appointed minister to the United States, had a private audience with the King on the 29th of December.

An intimation is thrown out in the Constitution, that two powerful cabinets have held consultations with a view of supporting the administration of Prince Polignac by the bayonet necessary. This is no doubt a political manoeuvre, but that it is not to his administration is to be as strong as ever.

An extraordinary courier passed through Vienna, on the 15th of December, from Vienna, charged with important despatches, both from Prussia and Austria, to the Porte.

It has been positively told in France. On Monday day, the death of Don, a soldier, who fell

Advices from Bucharest, of the 14th December, stated that General Kiselef, the new President of the two Principalities, had arrived at that place. The day after his arrival, he dressed the Divan officially, availing their sistance to aid him in promoting the peace prosperity of the principalities.

Count Bengout is charged with drawing up King's Speeches for the approaching session of the Chambers.

The Emperor and Queen of Naples entered Madrid on the 11th ult. The city was ornamented with arches of triumph, silk and silver cloth displayed in the windows, &c. The King & Queen entered at 11 o'clock in the morning, a laudau, drawn by six black horses. A full account is given of the ceremonial.

The extraordinary expenses occasioned the journey of the King of Naples, rendered additional taxes necessary, which created in some of the poorer classes, as the increase of the taxes was not accompanied by severity of the season, and dearth of flour & corn. It was supposed that Admiral Heyd had been invited to anchor his fleet in the harbour of Naples during the winter, partly for the purpose of overawing the popular murmurs.
It was said his Sicilian Majesty had demanded another million of ducats; the former mis-sent to Spain in advance having scarcely sufficed to pay the expenses of his progress.

A letter from Smyrna, of the 10th ult., says the insurrection in some of the islands adjacent, has been quelled by cutting off a few heads.

The Augsburg Gazette of December 18, announces the passage through Vienna of an English Courier to Constantinople, bearing despatches to Mr. Gordon, giving the definitive act of the Conference in London, on the affairs of Greece. They declare, definitely, the unconditional independence of Greece.

Don Miguel has sent a ship full of his disaffected subjects into the Gulf of Africa; and has since imprisoned a great number more, at the moment when they were embarking for voluntary exile to the island of Terceira.

A letter from Madrid says, "Our new Queen employs her utmost efforts to accommodate herself to the usages of Spain, and expresses great delight in witnessing ball-battings." It must be an interesting woman.

LISBON, Dec. 12.—The unfortunate person condemned to be exiled to the Portuguese colonies in Africa, for their political opinions, have been sent within a few days in several vessels. The engineers displayed in hastening the departure of so great a number at the same time has given rise to the apprehension of its being intended to make fresh arrests. The arrival of the Tagus of the Perola, the only vessel which maintained the blockade of Terceira, having left the approach to that island open, many of our constitutionalists formed the idea of proceeding thither, and with a design they freighted a vessel, called "the Michael." This vessel did in fact sail from the Tagus, and was steering northward, where it was to take on board the fugitives, who were concealed in the environs of Cascais; but they had been denounced, and were seized at the moment of embarking. They have been brought to Lisbon and committed to prison.

It is remarked with surprise that the captain of the vessel was not among the persons arrested.
It is said that a fresh misunderstanding, more violent than ever, has broken out between Don Miguel and his mother.

STRANGE RELATIONSHIP OF FERDINAND AND THE VII.—Ferdinand VII. when Prince of Casturias, married the daughter of the King of the Two Sicilies, and sister of the present King whom the latter married about the same time the sister of Ferdinand. They thus became doubly brothers-in-law, and Ferdinand became his own brother-in-law.

On his second marriage, he wedded his niece, the daughter of his sister and King John VI. of Portugal. By this marriage he became his own nephew-in-law.

Ferdinand's brother, Don Carlos, and his sister, Don Antonio, are both married to daughters of John VI. of Portugal, which has made his brother and his uncle also his brothers-in-law.

Finally, Ferdinand having married the daughter of Francis I. his brother-in-law, and one of his sisters—that sister being the niece of his first wife, and whose brother, Don Francisco di Paulo, married the eldest sister; thus Ferdinand is become the nephew of his brother-in-law, and the brother-in-law of the last-named Prince.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The German newspapers received to day assert, that an English and French courier passed through Vienna previous to the 10th inst., proceeding with all haste to Constantinople. These papers add that the extent of territory of Greece had been stated in a different form in arrangements made by the Allied Powers, though not yet recognized by the Sultan. That Negropont should be included in the Greek territory has not been a subject of doubt; and it is now stated that the European powers intend to divide the island of Candia and Samos between the King of Greece and the Sultan, and will form a part of the new State. But the chief subject of discussion will be the line of frontier to the north of Greece. The western extremity will, it is now said, be the mouth of Aspro-Po-tamios, (the ancient Achelous,) whence it will follow the course of that river upwards as far as Narachovi, and then extend in a right line to the Gulf of Zeintoni.

The rumours that the Court of Spain contemples the annihilation of Mexico, are quite as likely as the speculations that the King of Naples, now the father-in-law of Ferdinand, will make an advance of money in aid of that hopeful project. The Neapolitan treasury, without being altogether so bare as that of its Peninsular Ally, has, we may be assured, no funds to spare for Trans-Atlantic speculations.

A ridiculous statement has appeared in a Portuguese paper, that the King of England has sent a present of books to "his most faithful Majesty Don Antonio." Heretofore "his most faithful Majesty" may stand in need of such a present, the King of England has certainly not sent it to him.

The carpenters at the Adelphi are beginning to tremble for their situations. The elephant observed some nails loosened on the stage a few mornings ago, when she quietly seized a hammer, and very deliberately proceeded to fasten them. This is a positive fact, and, we think, evinces her extraordinary sagacity more clearly than her feats on the stage.—Sunday Times.

A circular has been issued in London, to encourage the holders of a 2 per cent. stock to subscribe for the defeat of any project to reduce the interest on the 3 per cent. stock to 2 per cent.
Such a combination, however, could succeed, the government will be able to borrow almost any sum of money at 3 1/2 per cent. interest, to pay off the dissentient holders.

EGYPT.—The extraordinary rise of the Nile, which has caused so much damage in Egypt, has disappeared rapidly, and the apprehensions which these circumstances occasioned have fortunately not been realized. Almost the whole of the cotton-crop has been saved, and, notwithstanding the kindness of the weather, have been less injured than what had been imagined at first.

The accounts from Constantinople are to the effect of November. A grand ball had been given by the French Ambassador, at which all the Turkish great men and ministers were present.
On this occasion, however, they did not mix, at the ball given by the English Ambassador, indiscriminately with the other guests; and they were not asked to drink wine;—sharbat was
